Subject: Notification on behalf of the Court

Dear Mr. Bandas and Mr. Valencia,

As noted in my previous email correspondence with you all, the Court has requested, on multiple occasions, that the PRPB retain and make available, a translator for all methodology-related calls. The use of a translator can ensure that the methodology discussions are done in an effective and efficient manner while cutting back on the time and expenses typically incurred by the additional time it takes to translate all of our discussions. As such, the Court does expect that at our next methodology discussion, a translator will be in place. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to me.

Sincerely,

Alex del Carmen, Ph.D.
